TOTNES has been praised for its 'passion' over the town's neighbourhood plan vision for the future.

For the past year the town has been involved in a major consultation exercise to put together a community-led local plan that will help to produce a development blueprint for Totnes for the next 15 years.

The plan team will be back in action during the next month with details of the proposals put together following the analysis of more than 1,000 comments produced by the consultation meetings and questionnaires.

The neighbourhood plan's new coordinator Mary Coughlan-Clarke said: 'We'd like to say thank you for the
