

TOTNES TIMES

12 Wednesday, May 14, 2014

Plans are on the move

TOTNES'S Neighbourhood Plan is on the move. A council spokesman said: 'Groups then worked on identifying

More than 70 people turned up for the town's annual meeting when the plan - which could shape the future of Totnes - was top of the agenda. The launch of the Neighbourhood

Plan was introduced by Professor Chris Balch and Cllr Tony Whitty who explained what the plan is, what has happened so far and why

Totnes want to develop its own plan. Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Over the next few weeks consultation events will take place around community facilities, and facilities for young people and schools, the economy and local businesses, transport and traffic issues, the future of the town. These emerged as housing, five priorities for the future of the town. These emerged as housing, transport and traffic issues, the economy and local businesses, schools and facilities for young people and community facilities.

Over the next few weeks consultation events will take place around

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.

Totnes want to develop its own plan.

Totnes in the town centre, Bridgetown and Follaton.